

Certificate of Appreciation and Thanks

Presented to

Dennis N Pekoff

For coming on your own to assist your fellow fence builders in replacing fence at our Nation's most hallowed ground – Arlington National Cemetery. You stepped forward without reservation to help in this most worthy project as we honor America's fallen heroes and their families.

Volunteering isn't some magic elixir. It's hard work. It takes dedication. It costs money. It requires coordination... Volunteerism is, in fact, far too important to be treated as a romantic fling at doing good. Myrne Roe, Wichita Eagle

This small improvement in this special place is a simple statement of respect to some of those who have made America the exceptional country She is. You stepped forward and joined with your fellows in this act of humility and respect.

Very few will ever know who accomplished this work – but all of us who were here do!

We shall be remembered - we few, we happy few, we band of brothers ... And Gentlemen ... now abed, shall think themselves accurs'd they were not here. Shakespeare, Henry V

Thank you!
